DAEGU, Republic of Korea -- Want to get the most out of your down time?

Participants in Ulchi Focus Lens 2001 can find something to do at the Camp Walker Community Activities Center. It is located beside the dining facility, and during the exercise its hours are noon to 11 p.m., extended to benefit UFL soldiers.

Participants will find a library, arts and crafts center, and cyber café located in the same building.

On-site activities include, billiards, table tennis, chess and other games. There is a TV and music room for all to use. Personnel can rent musical equipment (including Portable Audio systems), bikes (comes with a helmet and vest), barbecue grills, ice shavers for the snow cone connoisseurs and those needing a cold treat, and just about anything else one could think of.

To find out how to get the most out of your free time, call the CAC at 764-4123/5919. To find out how to get the most out of your free time, call the CAC at 764-4123/5919.
